

ADVENTURES OF MR. MOUSE

MY ANCESTORS
CAME OVER IN THE
"MAYFLOWER!"

SO DID MINE!

SOME OF MY
OTHER ANCESTORS CAME OVER WITH COLUMBUS—

MINE DID TOO!

WHILE OTHERS CAME OVER IN THE ARK—

SO DID MINE!

FEMININE FACTS

Mrs. Charlotte Perkins Gilman doesn't fancy the idea of there being statues to a "fat baby with bow and arrows" and none to mother love.

In California the wages of women civil service clerks have been raised to equal those of men's wages. Women vote in California.

Women in Roumania have the privilege of practicing as doctors and lawyers and also of holding official appointments.

Ten thousand Cleveland women endorsed a bill for the appointment of a woman market inspector.

HE SURELY CAN LOOK LIKE VILLAIN

Jack
Richardson

Tinkle, tinkle. Listen to the banjo. No, it's a mandolin! Yes, that's it all right. And guess who the player is?

None other than handsome Jack Richardson, who so often figures in the dreadful villain roles of the American Film Company's photoplays.

It is nearly impossible to guess how he could convert his handsome face into the semblance of a villain's physiognomy.

But he can, all right!
